Conditions of Sale

1. All bids are to be entered by LOT as numbered in this catalog.
2. Coins will be bought for as much BELOW YOUR BIDS as possible. Hundreds of our Auction customers can attest to this.
3. NO COMMISSION, service charge or other extras will be made for executing your bids. Only the actual COST OF MAILING and insurance (blanket coverage) will be added to your bill.
4. Prices given following lots are estimates and only intended as a guide. You may bid higher or lower as you wish.
5. The authenticity of all coins is guaranteed by the cataloger but all claims must be made within 5 days.
6. All bidders unknown to us, who have not established credit or do not have an A. C. D. A. CREDIT CARD, must send references one week before the sale or send a deposit of 25% of their bids. Bids will not be executed unless this is followed.
7. Terms are cash and accounts must be paid when bills are rendered. Our consignors are guaranteed full settlement within 30 days.
8. A printed list of PRICES REALIZED will be published about two weeks after the sale. By marking your bid sheet or ordering before the end of the sale the price is 50 cents.
9. Lots may be examined at the office of the cataloguer, 487 State Street, New Haven, Conn., 3 days prior to the sale.
10. LAST MINUTE BIDS may be wired or air-mailed to FRANK J. KATEN, 487 State St., New Haven 10, Conn.
11. Foreign customers may cable their bids using our cable address KATENCOIN, New Haven, Conn.

The other attraction being 'The Liliput Railroad', three complete trains each pulling about fifteen cars holding 10 passengers to a car . . . The miniature engines are beautiful reproductions of the type used in the Swiss Alps . . . The delightful ride on one of these trains around the park takes 20 minutes . . . Many of the conventional rides can be seen, but also others which I have never noticed in the few places I visited in late years . . . The amusing spiel in Deutsch in front of a side show . . . The Zoo with its birds and animals up to the size of a bear . . . The dinner in the park with two huge steins of beer each 'from soup to nuts' for less than a dollar for both . . . The families picnicing ordering only a beer or wine and digging into baskets filled with bread and salted fish . . . The trolley ride back with my newly found friend around the Ring . . . Seems the city itself is encircled by roads called Alser Ring, Franz Josef Ring, etc. . . . Next day being Monday expected to go to work but found everything closed; seems it was a Saint Day and Legal Holiday . . . Visited St. Stephens Cathedral—the landmark of Vienna—and now structurally completed after the devastation by bombs . . . A campaign is on asking citizens to contribute 5 shillings for a tile for the roof, which needs 250,000 for complete coverage . . . Afternoon tea at the Hochhaus (High House) tallest structure in Vienna, with its three tiers of dining facilities . . . My complete pleasure spoiled however by light rains, but in distance could see sun coming up . . . Dawdled over coffee expecting a rainbow I was hoping to snap with my Retina II.

The taxi ride to the Vienna Woods to dine at the Cobenzl Restaurant . . . Hundreds of outside tables atop a mountain overlooking the city . . . Dined outside in one of the five restaurants bribing the waiter for a table near a window . . . The twinkling lights of Vienna going on a few at a time until the city looked like a fairyland. . . . The really excellent dinner with wine from its own vineyards below . . . Owned by Hubner who also has eight other excellent facilities in the city including a restaurant concession in Schonbrunn Castle . . . On leaving found that taxis did not have a stand there and could only be called by phone . . . Was persuaded by an Austrian policeman going off duty to ride with him on bus to Grinzing and then take taxi . . . During 20 minutes wait for bus policeman told of Russian feeling for them . . . Seems they are held in contempt and are only armed with 25's . . . Had similar talk with another policeman previous day in park along same lines . . . Besides the American Jeeps with the four-power police force; An American, Englishman, Frenchman and Russian, there are now foot patrols . . . Two Russian soldiers with carbines strapped on back followed by 2 Austrian policemen march in street close to sidewalk . . . Excelsior Hotel, home of top Russian Brass, has sidewalk roped off to street line; you walk in street when passing or cross to other side . . . Surely was surprised at ease in going anywhere in Russian zone of city . . . Seems they wish to point out Vienna as shining example of Russian occupation . . . Many plush night spots have sprung up since my last visit . . . Visited Cafe Splendid, where I broke the waiter's heart because I would not allow him to bring me a 'very nice girl' to share my wine . . . The Anna Stube and the Casanova Bar are several others worth seeing . . . Bar girls in all of them as you will find in most of Germany and Austria . . . The great number of beggars, cripples and pregnant women selling—you guessed it—shoelaces . . . The brooms of twigs apparently doing a good job in the streets . . . A glass of water with coffee in all Viennese cafes . . . The shuttered show-windows at closing time precluding any American version of window shopping . . . Playing an American slot-machine set up with Austrian Shillings and winning over a dollar . . . Found out later that a letter to Frances had been censored; bold stamps on envelope and letter and then taped over the slit . . . Letters home four months ago were not censored; wonder if it started August 1st when Russia assumed command of Vienna on rotation plan . . . The pleasant slow ride back to the Tulln Airport on Pan American bus . . . Stopped by Russian patrol which boarded bus and scrutinized passengers . . . One guard selected young chap who had a miserable 5 minutes explaining that he was a civilian worker at Airport which was substantiated by his credentials.

An unscheduled stop behind the iron curtain at Prague, Czechoslovakia provided a thrill . . . A thirty-foot portrait of Stalin at one end of administration building with another portrait at other end, probably the President? of Czechoslovakia . . . Between, huge flags of the Satellite countries and in center a larger flag of Russia . . . A wonderful shot, I thought for my camera and left plane with leather cover open . . . Before I had gone ten feet a guard came charging at me shouting in Slav which I did not understand, but knew what he meant . . . Closing camera cover, noticed he kept his eye on me during almost two hour stay at airport . . . Exchanged some dollars to purchase gifts, getting 'official' rate of 50 Crowns for 1 dollar . . . Found out later that New York exchange is 500 Crowns for one dollar . . . Did purchase nice blouse, doll and other things . . . Left on flight to Berlin with stop at Munich and change of plane at Frankfurt.

Returning to Berlin to my 'home' the Hotel Steinplatz, found the lobby crowded with 50 people waiting for me . . . After three hours of interviewing found the crowd had apparently not diminished in number . . . The delightful tea with my hotel host in his private quarters . . . Dinner later at the Old Wien Restaurant and still later to a banker friend's home for 'a drink' . . . Was chagrined to find out that the drink was only the predecessor to a full course dinner . . . Not wishing to admit I had eaten was forced to stuff myself up to here . . . Coffee served in the drawing room, mine being in Sevres china . . . Later champagne out in the terrace under the stars . . . The tempo of life in Berlin has quickened almost to a fever pitch . . . Scores of new night clubs, restaurants, etc., and all well patronized . . . The feeling is that the Commies will strike soon, perhaps after the harvest . . . Having lost their all in the last war, they feel they may as well live for today . . . With every able bodied man and woman at work on clearing the ruins, money is again available to the average person . . . The hundreds of women working with men loading trucks, digging into ruins, stacking bricks, etc. . . . The only exemption a woman can claim from this work is by a doctor's certificate . . . The ingenious show windows and advertisements of stores advertising 'Summer Ending Sale' . . . Every type of store apparently cooperates, even coin dealers . . . The selection of islands in the North Sea as a vacation spot by more fortunate people.

More progress and building in Berlin since my last visit about four months ago than in almost five years since the war . . . One may walk almost the entire length of the main street, Kurfurstendam, without having to detour around ruins . . . It is necessary however to slightly change one's course to avoid the frauleins wanting to know if you have time . . . Learned that apparently the correct time was not wanted as many had their own wrist watches . . . Viewed the city from atop the Funktum, the tallest structure in Berlin; the German version of an Eiffel Tower . . . Descending half way to the restaurant to enjoy a very fine meal, plus the excellent view . . . The French Building newly completed on the main street, corner of Uhlandstr . . . Besides housing an Information Center, contains a theatre, book shop, Air France Office and a very fine restaurant . . . This last is atop the building, about

A Report to friends interested in a FREE Hobby:

From The Numismatist, October 1950, Page 715

FROM THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

The following report was submitted to the Executive Board, entered in the records and ordered published in The Numismatist:

At the opening of the first business session of the convention, Louis S. Werner, regularly appointed Sergeant-at-arms, acting in accordance with instructions of the Executive Board, refused admittance to the meeting of expelled member Frank J. Katen, who had attempted to enter. Mr. Katen then swore out a warrant for the arrest of Mr. Werner, on the charges of assault and battery. The names of Dr. John H. Wild, John Jay Pittman and Fred E. Kern, Sr., were named on the warrant as witnesses. Mr. Werner was arrested and then released on a $50 bond. The court hearing was set for 9 a. m. on August 28. A few minutes before the time set for the hearing, the above-named witnesses approached Mr. Werner and stated that Mr. Katen desired to withdraw the charges and apologize. Mr. Katen appeared before the Judge, withdrew the charges, and apologized to Mr. Werner.

THE BIG LIE! The above is a deliberate, malicious and libelous lie. It publicly brands The American Numismatic Association and the illegal Executive Board composed of M. Vernon Sheldon, Joseph Moss, Capt. O. H. Dodson, J. Hewitt Judd, Charles L. Ruby, C. H. Ryan and Richard S. Yeoman as liars, cheaters and sophists.

HERE ARE THE FACTS concerning the above. As soon as the first business meeting was opened, Mr. Arnim B. Judd of Rochester, N. Y., arose and requested that Frank J. Katen be permitted to attend the meetings as a spectator. This request was denied by Sheldon, notwithstanding the fact that any non-member could attend the meeting, and notwithstanding the fact that no one was challenged by Lou Werner, the Sergeant-at-arms. I then attempted to enter the room, whereupon I was criminally assaulted by the Sergeant-at-arms in plain view of witnesses. (Note: Read your minutes of the meeting and you will find no mention of Mr. Judd's request. Is this honest verbatim reporting on the minutes to the membership?)

Shortly after the time that the warrant was served I was approached by Mr. Max Schwartz with a request that I withdraw charges. I refused to do so as I felt that this would be an opening wedge to air the whole stinking ANA mess. Something that the illegal Executive Board does not want. All that evening and until 4:30 that morning pressure was brought to withdraw charges. The theme was that the Association could not stand unfavorable publicity, it would hurt the hobby, etc., etc. I refused to withdraw charges and arrived at the court house shortly before nine o'clock.

For one and a half hours (nine until ten thirty), I was besieged by all concerned to withdraw charges. Mr. James Buchbinder, ANA member, and attorney at law in Milwaukee, who had been hired to defend Werner, approached me five times with the same request. I admire Mr. Buchbinder's effort because he was attempting to effect peace in the organization, but he also has been lied to as you will see later. Present in my group were Dr. and Mrs. John H. Wild, John J. Pittman, Fred E. Kern, Sr., Mr. Diamond, and another person whose name escapes me for the moment, and of course, Frances, my wife. Everyone, except Fred E. Kern, implored, begged, cajoled, implored and did everything in the book attempting to make me change my mind and withdraw charges against Werner.

I finally agreed to withdraw charges. This was against my better judgment and against the mature judgment of Mr. Kern. I did it in respect to my wife and Mrs. Wild and for Dr. Wild and Mr. Pittman for their support of the Committee of Eighty. There were however certain stipulations, namely: (1) Werner and I would sign releases against each other; (2) I would publish nothing about the arrest in 'KATEN KOIN KAPERS'; (3) I would be allowed to enter the second and final meetings of the convention; (4) I would shake hands with Werner and apologize.

I kept my promises by apologizing to Werner and not publishing anything about the arrest in the 'Kapers.' Joe Moss, C. H. Ryan and Louis Werner are cheats because they have not kept their promise. They of course, allowed me to attend the second and final meetings—whether they were keeping their promise, or whether they were afraid I would try to enter the meeting room again (which I would have done) is problematical. However, they have not kept their promise of a signed release, even though Mr. Buchbinder has been attempting to get it for over two months.

Immediately after the final meeting Louis Werner stated in the presence of Mr. Buchbinder that he was not giving a release but was getting out a warrant for Dr. Wild, Mr. Pittman, Mr. Kern and myself. Shortly after Mr. Buchbinder called me on the phone stating that he had spoken with Joe Moss regarding the turn of events, but Moss assured him that he would see that I got a statement if he had to 'push Werner' to get it.

I am reprinting correspondence between Mr. Buchbinder and myself in full in order that no innuendo may be inferred by leaving out parts:

August 31, 1950

Dear Frank: Enclosed please find forms of releases prepared by the writer. Should this meet with your approval, please notify me as soon as possible, and I shall arrange an exchange possibly through either Mr. Culver or myself. I will not request you to sign anything until I am absolutely positive that Mr. Werner has done likewise. I am sending a similar letter to Colonel Moss who agreed to obtain Mr. Werner's release.

I hope that you and Mrs. Katen had a very pleasant trip home and promise you that next time you come to Milwaukee, we will try and make up for the sad experience of this visit.

I do not wish to enter into the controversy, and if possible would like to use my office to try and heal the breach. Should you decide to organize a new organization, I would be more than happy to be a charter member with the understanding, of course, that it would be a dual membership with the A. N. A. My fondest hope, of course, would be that this controversy could be cured for the benefit of all.

Sincerely yours, (Signed) James Buchbinder.

September 6, 1950.

Dear Mr. Buchbinder: Many thanks for your letter and release forms enclosed. The form meets with my approval and I hope Mr. Werner will feel the same way about it. I am holding them until I hear from you as to just what to do with them.

May I take this opportunity to thank you for your courtesy and trust our next meeting will be under better circumstances. With kindest regards, I remain
Sincerely yours, (Signed) Frank J. Katen.

September 18, 1950

Dear Mr. Buchbinder: Under date of September 6th, I wrote you in reply to your letter expressing approval with the agreement you enclosed.

May I hear from you by return mail as to what is holding this agreement up? With kindest regards, I remain

Sincerely yours, (Signed) Frank J. Katen.

Sept. 19, 1950.

Dear Frank: To date I have not heard from Colonel Moss. I am writing him another letter today. Very truly yours, (Signed) James Buchbinder.

October 10, 1950.

Dear Mr. Buchbinder: This is a follow-up to your letter of September 19th regarding the proposed release that you submitted. As I have not received any word from you as of this date I was wondering just what was holding this up.

Trusting to hear from you and with kindest regards, I remain
Sincerely yours, (Signed) Frank.

There it stands ANA members—Those are your officers—are you proud of them? Are they proud of themselves? Ask them how could the present printing company reduce the cost of the Numismatist over last year? Particularly when everything including paper, engraving and labor has increased tremendously. Perhaps last year they made an error, if so the company should be forced to return the thousands of dollars overcharged. If this was not so, did someone get the money?

Please do not forget that your ANA officers have consistently refused to answer the charges made against them. I repeat, are they afraid those charges may be true?

Personal Observations—The Numismatist now seems to be a personal house organ for Sheldon, Moss, et al. . . . Still no signs of publishing resignations . . . Would be embarrassing to do so, particularly if some clubs resigned . . . Financially embarrassing too, would be non-renewal of advertising contracts . . . The Answer? Resignation of the present officers or impeachment . . . In the meantime plans are progressing nicely for a new organization . . . See you next month.

8 floors high, and has cocktail lounge facing the main street thru wide picture windows . . . Enjoyed dinner which was ordered from a menu measuring about 2x1 ½ feet . . . A five piece orchestra plays dinner music while the indirect lighting changes color with the tempo of the score . . . Visited a few of the new night clubs among them the El Dorado . . . The main attraction here were the entertainers, a group of fairly nice boys . . . The Hufeisen Goldener (Golden Horseshow) had a circular corral with two horses very much interested in the antics of the customers. Within the corral was a raised platform for dancing . . . Signs advertising a canter on a horse at 50 pfennigs and a trot at 1 mark-50 pfennigs . . . A number of girl customers took rides—will leave it to your imagination what happened to their skirts at the end of a fast trot to music . . . The Tabasco Bar, The Piccadilly and the San Francisco all feature naked shows . . . Again visited the Queens Club and still the number one spot in my book of Europe.

The news that my Stratocruiser flight had been cancelled made me wonder if the ship had been taken for the Asia Transport . . . The fortune in getting booking on next day's Constellation flight . . . Skipping the London stop and on to Shannon where dinner of Irish steak and ale was served . . . Enroute, the news that we were to land at Reykjavik, Iceland in order to fool the Hurricane which was sweeping up from Florida . . . The landing at the Iceland strip, and from what I was told it is still the same bleak place the GI's knew . . . More rocks in evidence, but no commemorative sets to be seen . . . Enroute to Gander, the news that we had broken a line and lost all our hydraulic fluid . . . This caused a dreary three-hour layover at Gander, preceded by breakfast . . . The flight down the coast-line to New York provided many opportunities for some nice snapshots as we were flying low . . . The skillful handling of the ship by Capt. Keeton, proves the reason for the affection of American Overseas Airlines held by all in Europe . . . The sorrow shown by their personnel and former passengers now that the airlines was passing to Pan American . . . The backlog of passengers at the customs caused by five ships arriving within a half hour . . . The fatigue of 25 hours since boarding the ship compared with the normal 17 hours vanished when greeted by Frances and my mother . . . The news that I had been appointed an Admiral of the Fleet by American Airlines made me feel part of their family . . . Particularly so as I had flown in the cockpit of the Constellation coming over completing such experiences in every type of American ship . . . On the highway, passing Capt. Miller Hayes, Berlin-Frankfurt pilot, who had flown across with us, now on his way to Korea . . . God Bless you Captain—and thanks too, to my readers . . . If you like DOUBLE IMPRESSIONS, please continue to tell me so, won't you?

Numismatics in New England

Published Now and Then

The New Haven Numismatic Society has announced that plans for their 13th Annual Banquet are now complete.

This gala yearly event will be held Monday November 27th, 1950, at the Colonial House, 2389 Dixwell Avenue, Hamden, Connecticut.

The speaker for the occasion is Mr. John J. Ford of Long Island. Mr. Ford's subject, 'English Numismatic Literature' promises to be interesting as well as off the beaten path in coin banquet speeches.

The tariff is $3.25 and covers everything. Members and guests who attended previous banquets at the Colonial House know that a treat is in store for them gastronomically speaking.

An added treat will be the usual auction following the speaker. Members are contributing about 100 lots of exceptionally fine and wanted material.

Exhibits will highlight the care that members place upon their collection. In the past, collectors have been delighted with the diversity of these exhibitions.

Door Prizes, favors, surprises will make each moment spent that evening a memorable one.

Plan to be there—super-highways from New York, Rhode Island and Massachusetts lead to the Colonial House. There is an exit from the Parkway at Hamden, a few miles from New Haven.

As arrangements are limited, please send your reservation with check to Mr. Walter P. Johnson, Secretary, 19 West Rock Ave., New Haven, Conn.

COINS — FOOD — GOOD FELLOWSHIP

Is there more?

The New England Numismatic Association, affectionately called NENA, celebrated their 4th Annual Convention, Saturday, October 28th, 1950, in Hartford, Conn.

The affair drew over 100 enthusiastic collectors from the six New England States and New York. Everybody had praise for the homey and down-to-earth manner that featured every phase of this conference.

For the first time a dealer's bourse was instituted and it proved to be a profitable venture both for the club and the dealers. The collectors too, profited because it was noted that many bargains were made available to them.

The business meeting was enjoyably informal with the election of a new slate. Mr. Max H. Kuhner, of Worcester, Mass., was unanimously elected president.

The auction sale of over 150 lots provided the members with good coins and good humor. A great many lots were contributed to the club and this feature yielded $23.00 to the treasury. Add to this the $21.00 in commissions shows that the club has been enriched by approximately $44.00.

The banquet itself was delightful for the Bond Hotel has always been noted for its good food. Although the usual 'coin club turkey' was served, it seemed to taste better, and it was definitely hot.

The President elect, Mr. Max Kuhner, spoke of plans for the coming year. His hope was that he would follow in the capable footsteps of his predecessor, but in the meantime increase the club's membership roster.

He announced that the convention would be held in New Haven, Conn., in 1951, following the wishes of the members and with the approval of the new officers.

Collectors wishing to join this organization may write requesting an application blank. Dues are $1.00 per year, and entitles you to receive their publication NENA NEWS.
